2016

SHARYNE'S SNIPPITS

Dear Families,

I hope you all enjoyed your ANZAC Day long weekend.

We had so much happening last week.

Monday with the Vietnam Veterans Motorcycle Club attending assembly.

Tuesday saw Cody, Josh, Teia and Willow attend the annual Student Leadership Conference at Korumburra. The students were excellent ambassadors and will share their experiences at next Monday's assembly.

Wednesday morning the grade 3/4 students along with Mr Steel, Mr Manning and myself left for camp at Allambee. The weather was superb and the students were in high spirits as they met up with new and old friends from Newhaven Primary. Mrs Williams and Steve Kelly arrived on Thursday to complete the camp. I can't wait to catch up with the students about camp. Thanks Steve for taking a group on Thursday at camp. I hope everyone back at school enjoyed the great weather whilst the 3/4's were on camp.

A HUGE thank you to Steve for reattaching the repaired platform to the playground equipment. Woo Hoo!!!

A big thank you to Mrs Gifford for attending the Sunday ANZAC Day ceremony with our School Captains. Mrs Gifford took some great photos for you all to share. I apologise for being unable attend due to my mum having a procedure on her eye on Friday and needing to care for her. I received this email this morning from Jane Ross one of the organisers of the ANZAC Day ceremony yesterday that I would love to share with you all:

"Thank you very much for arranging for student representatives to attend the San Remo Anzac commemoration. They acquitted themselves with the usual aplomb and were very gracious to don school uniforms on a Sunday in the middle of a long weekend."

Regards Jane Ross

Please remember our safest and preferred parking area for student drop off or pick up is at the top of Wynne Ave in front of the Recreation Centre.
